

Design Rationale

This website was designed for a local dental clinic to improve lead generation and appointment bookings.

The layout focuses on clear service messaging, strong trust signals, and simple navigation.

CTAs are strategically placed to guide users toward booking an appointment.

The mobile-first approach ensures ease of use for users searching on their phones, improving conversion rates.